

PARTICIPANT'S GUIDE – FEBRUARY 3

HIGHLIGHT: Primary Passage from Sunday

James 1:1-12: James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, To the twelve tribes scattered among the nations: Greetings.

² Consider it pure joy, my brothers and sisters, whenever you face trials of many kinds,³ because you know that the testing of your faith produces perseverance. ⁴ Let perseverance finish its work so that you may be mature and complete, not lacking anything. ⁵ If any of you lacks wisdom, you should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to you. ⁶ But when you ask, you must believe and not doubt, because the one who doubts is like a wave of the sea, blown and tossed by the wind. ⁷ That person should not expect to receive anything from the Lord. ⁸ Such a person is double-minded and unstable in all they do.

¹² Blessed is the one who perseveres under trial because, having stood the test, that person will receive the crown of life that the Lord has promised to those who love him.

EXPLAIN: To Be Reviewed before the group gathering

The book of James simultaneously reveals to us the glory of God as well as what He is calling us to do as followers of Jesus. James (the half brother of Jesus) gives practical advice for believers who are facing real life struggles, while encouraging us to lean into the character of God. James pulls no punches in his instruction; he writes with the heart of a pastor and the strength of someone who saw his brother killed, buried, and resurrected as he gives us a blueprint for life.

APPLY: For Group Discussion

- 1.) What is the opposite of fragile? What is something that grows stronger under stress?
- 2.) Read vv. 2-4. James tells us that trials are inevitable. How does he tell us we should approach these trials? How are we able to have this perspective on trials?
- 3.) Share a personal trial that in the moment you didn't understand, but in hindsight you are grateful for?
- 4.) Read vv. 5-9. In the midst of trials, James tells us to ask for wisdom. How do we practically do this? As we ask for wisdom, we must not doubt. What type of doubt do you think James meant here?
- 5.) Read James 1:12 and 2 Corinthians 4:16-18. How does this encourage us in the midst of trials?. Think about Jesus' life and how does he perfectly illustrate this truth? (Philippians 2:5-12)

RESPOND: Bringing the discussion to a point of action

Think of a current trial you are in or a past trial that you are unsure of its purpose.

- How does your perspective of this trial compare to vv.2-4?
- How can you ask God for wisdom? What wise counsel can you discuss this trial with?
